

Debbie Vanderveen - Debbie lives in Jenks, Oklahoma with her husband Bill Vanderveen, they have 4 children and 7 grandchildren. They were active members of St. James United Methodist Church for about 20 years and now split our time between Life Church.tv and St. James. Deb was involved in Juvenile Prison Ministry with Kairos Torch for 12 years where she mentored and tutored incarcerated juveniles and served as an international trainer.

Debbie is a Certified Public Accountant and has worked in the accounting field most of her adult life - with breaks for motherhood. She has a degree in accounting and a Master's in Business Administration. Deb owns her own practice where she specialize in small businesses. Debbie is on the Small Business Committee of the Oklahoma Society of Certified Public Accountants.

The board asked Debbie to join in 2006 when the previous Treasurer left and she has happily served since then. Deb is responsible for the donation records, bookkeeping, the yearly audit/review, and the tax return for USFCH. She sponsors a lovely girl at the Haiti Home for Children and encourage all to sponsor as it is a great experience.
