Lisa Leung – Board member since 2014. Lisa visited Haiti for the first time as a co-leader on a birthland tour for Haitian adoptees and their families in 2012. After one week of being in Haiti she knew her heart had fallen in love with the culture, people, and FEH organization. She has returned to Haiti every November ever since her first trip, to assist in organizing and fundraising for Christmas gifts for the children.

Lisa lives in Tulsa, OK with her husband and dog Milo. She works at an international adoption agency in Oklahoma for the past 5 years. She supervises all post adoption events and birthland tours for adoptees and their families. She has a BA from Oral Roberts University and is about to graduate with a Masters in Social Work from Oklahoma University. She works with the board of directors as secretary and leads a group to Haiti every Thanksgiving.
